

Former ING Barings head joins Millenium

21/10/2015 by: News Team

MilleniumAssociates, the international M&A and corporate finance advisory firm, based in Switzerland and the UK, has appointed David Robins as the latest member of its global advisory board.

Mr Robins, the former chairman and chief executive of ING Barings has had a career of over 40 years in the financial services industry with assignments in the USA, Japan and Australia as well as Switzerland and the UK.

Ray Soudah, MilleniumAssociates' chairman said Mr Robins has "an exceptional international experience not only in the financial services sector but across industries and geographies and he will not only support the firm's financial services offering but also be invaluable to our global entrepreneurial advisory services."

© This article is a printed version of an article retrieved from TheWealthNET. If you copy this article illegally, you will be liable for prosecution. All rights in and relating to this article are expressly reserved. No part of this article may be reproduced, stored in a retrieval system or transmitted in any form or by any means without written permission from the publishers. The views expressed in this article are not necessarily those of the publishers and you should seek the advice of a professional before taking any action or entering into any agreement in reliance upon the information contained in this article. Whilst the publishers have taken every care in compiling this article to ensure that it is accurate at the time of going to press, the publishers do not accept any responsibility or liability for errors or omissions therein, however caused.